

LEADERSHIP

Child Welfare Management Innovations Institute

“This program was interesting and interactive.”

“I believe the learning has given me a great foundation to continue to enhance my leadership skills. I am actively and intentionally utilizing what I learned within my current position.”

“I will incorporate the learning from the program to follow through with the goals and expectations I have for myself.”

After a successful first cohort, the Child Welfare Management Innovations Institute is currently accepting applications for Cohort 2!

This Institute is a leadership development program for managers at the Indiana Department of Child Services. We are looking for Central Office Managers, Division Managers, Regional Managers, and Local Office Directors who are open to innovation, have the ability to embrace change and want to improve their leadership skills.

Request an application by contacting Jamie Smith, Project Manager, at smithjak@indiana.edu or 317.645.8422.

Take the next step toward becoming a stronger leader!
